THE HOLY PLACE SURROUNDING JERUSALEM

The City Fathers of Jerusalem were strict Sabbath-keepers. They made certain that the gates of Jerusalem were locked at the beginning of the Sabbath so that no merchants or vendors could carry on business within the city during the holy Sabbath hours. Not until the Sun went down on Saturday evening did the traffic (in goods) begin. Worldly vendors liked to camp up close to the walls, spread out there wares, attract the attention of anyone on the top of the wall or near the gates or of any who might wish to enter or depart during the Sabbath hours. Therefore to remove this distraction or infringement, for several furlongs beyond the walls, there was established the “Holy Sabbath Ground” or “Holy Place” on which worldly vendors could not camp.

The Roman armies stood on that ‘holy ground’ by placing there idolatrous standards, flags, and symbols and banners, or jabbed them into the ground to announce the take-over by Rome! Pagan Rome was a union of Sun worship and civil authority so that the standards bore on them the symbols of the Sun and other things – Moon, stars, etc. Jesus explained to His followers, in Matthew 24:15, that when they should see Rome place its MARK of authority, its symbol of Sun worship on their holy Sabbath ground, they would know that it was time for them to flee from the cities to the mountains.
